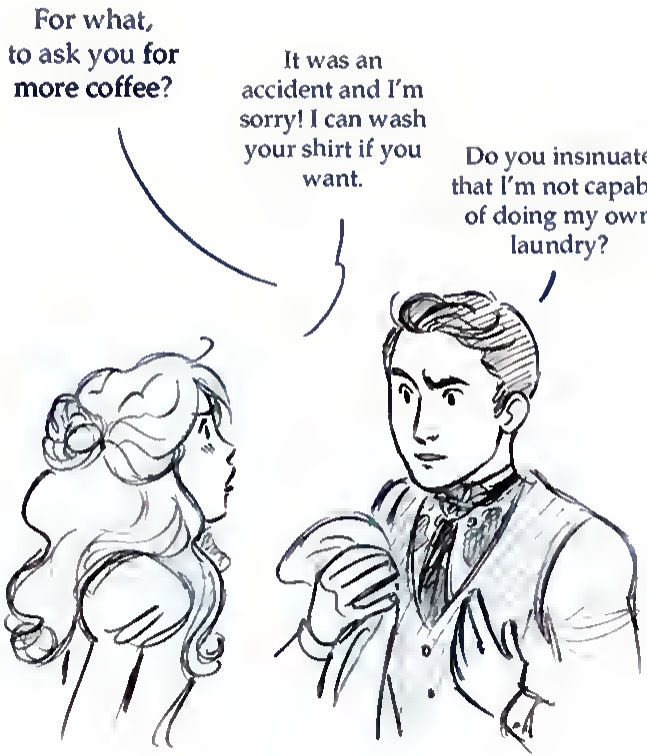
Are you following me??
Who, me?
Following you?
No way!



For what, to ask you for more coffee?
It was an accident and I'm sorry! I can wash your shirt if you want.
Do you insinuate that I'm not capable of doing my own laundry?

Of course not! I know you are disgustingly perfect!

Is that supposed to be an insult?
It is!

It's like if I'd say that you are disgustingly charming.
Or disgustingly pretty.

It would be...
a contradictory,
nonsensical sentence.

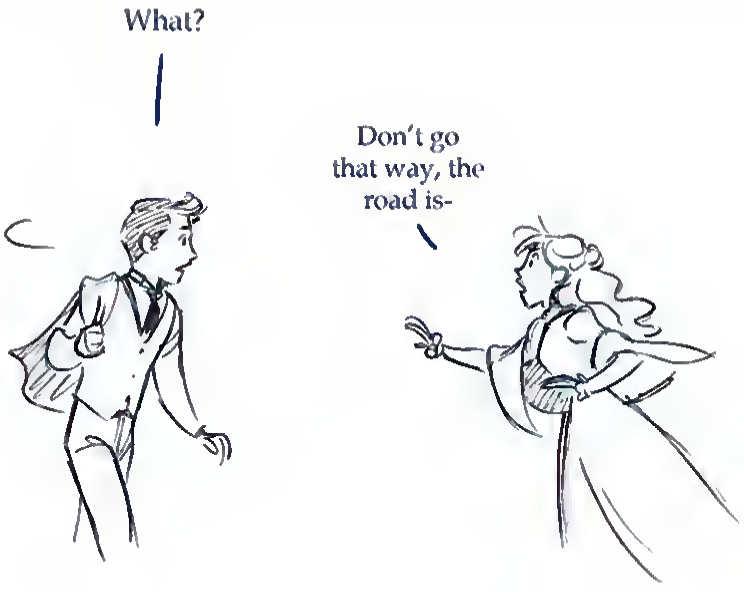
I-I'm leaving!
Do me a favour and don't follow me, please, I see you everywhere I go.
Don't worry, I'll take the opposite way.

Doctor!
Doctor Marino!

Am I not leaving fast enough for you? I'm not going to run!
No, wait! The abandoned factory's road is not safe!

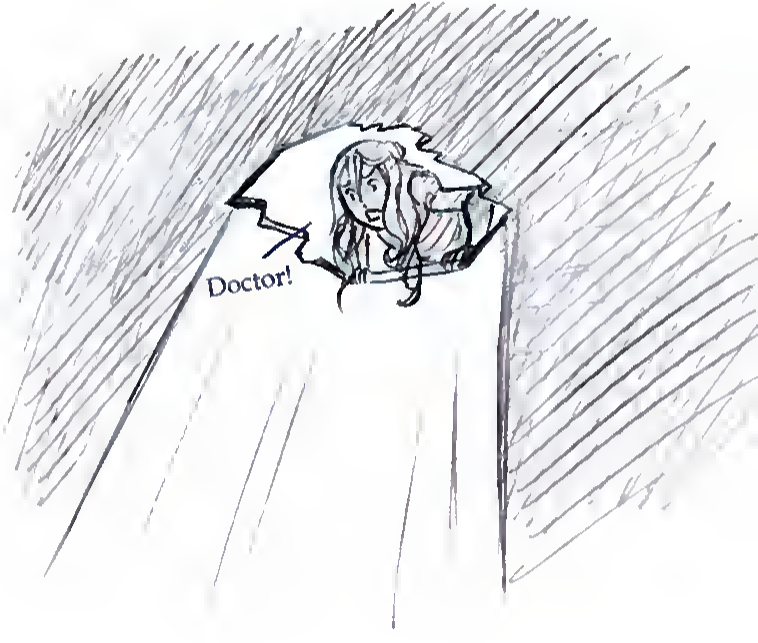


What?
Don't go that way, the road is-

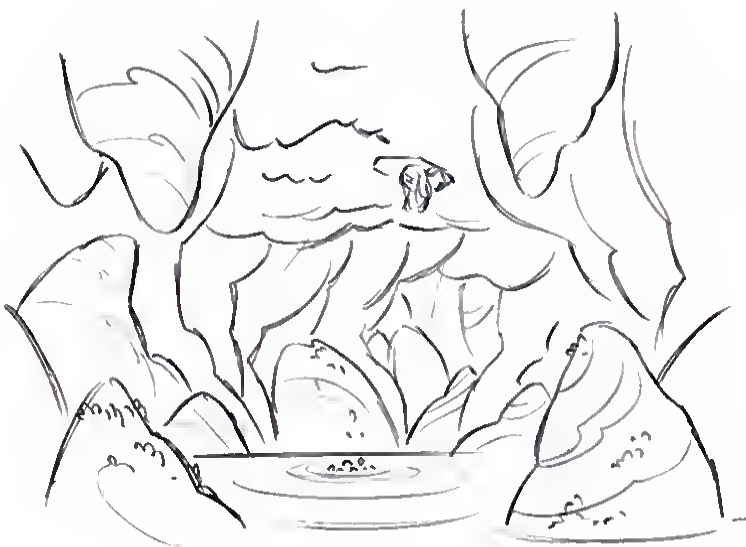
Creeck!

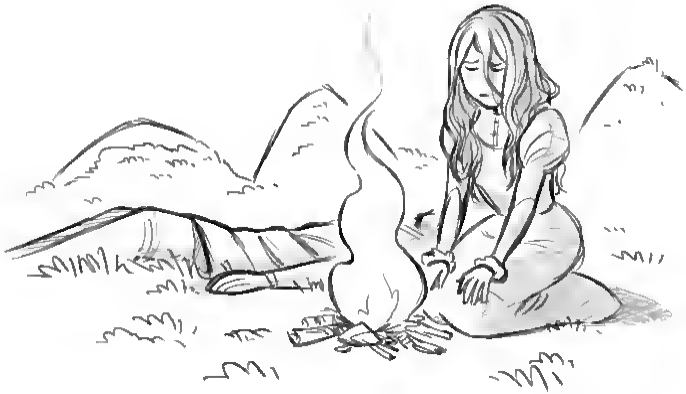
Crack!!

Doctor
Marino!!

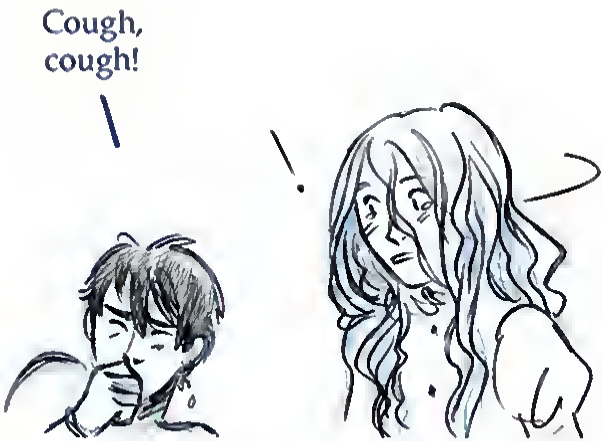


Doctor!

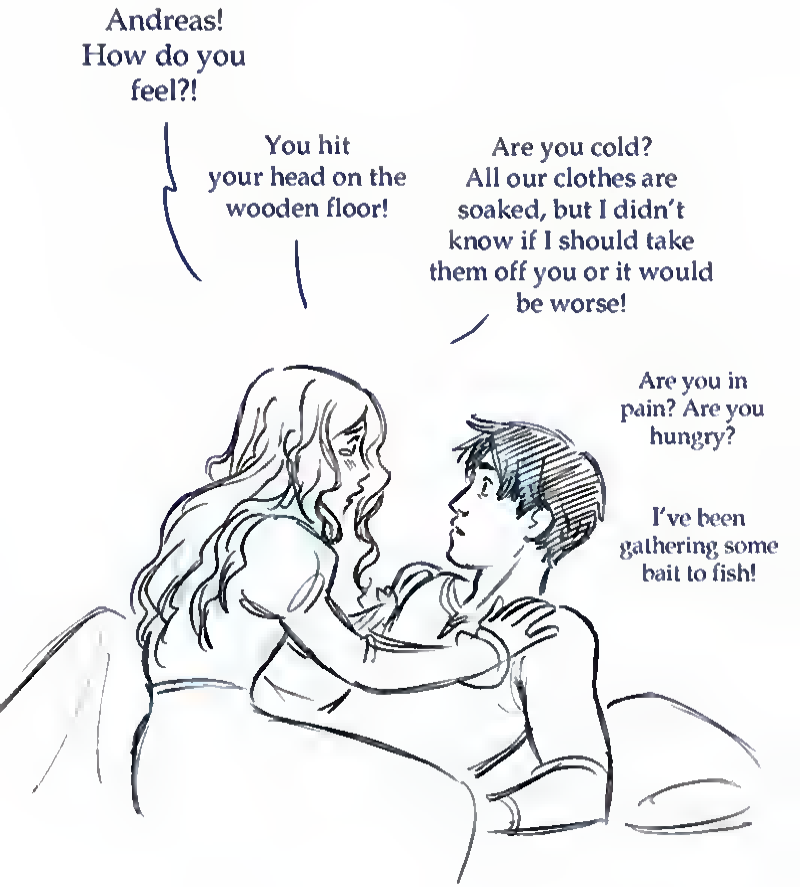




I-I'm not going bald!



Cough,
cough!



Andreas! How do you feel?!
You hit your head on the wooden floor!
Are you cold? All our clothes are soaked, but I didn't know if I should take them off you or it would be worse!
Are you in pain? Are you hungry?
I've been gathering some bait to fish!

How long have I been unconcious?
About ten minutes? I'm not sure.

Haha!
Have you set up a camp in ten minutes?
You're incredible.

I'll go get some fish.
Don't worry, you'll be ok very soon.

Wait, wait! I'm fine, are you ok? Why are you crying?

I'm not crying!

Is it because you're regretting you didn't call for help instead of jumping through that hole?
I understand it, now both of us are trapped.

If I hadn't jumped you'd be dead by now, doctor!

Maybe, but you wouldn't die here too.
Besides, you didn't know if I could swim or not.

Pffthaha!
You're kidding, right?

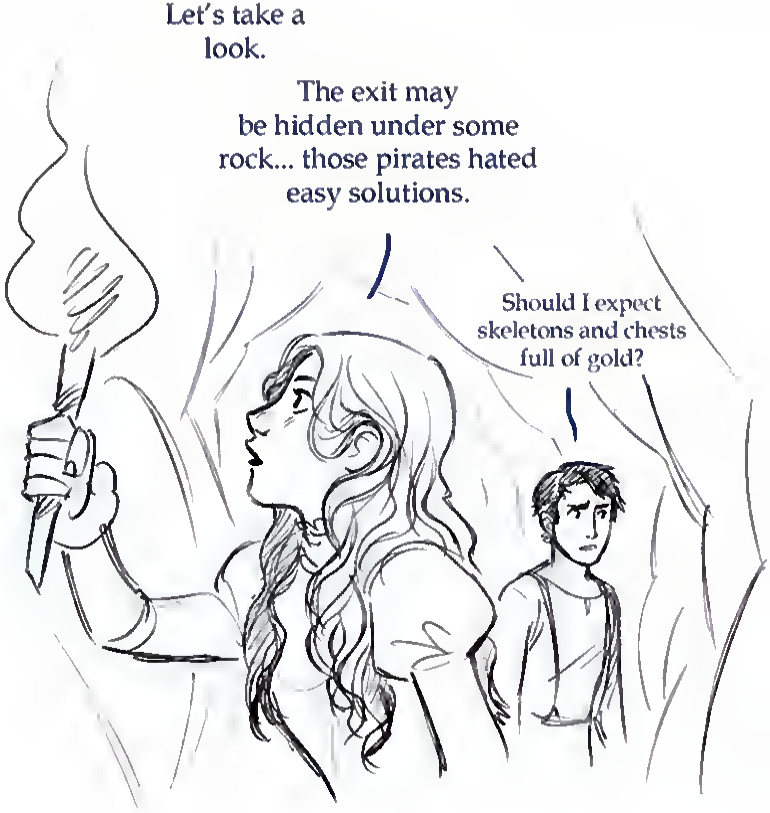
Don't worry, we're not going to die down here.
These caves are under the town and the 18th Century pirates used them for their stash: we just have to find the exit.



Let's take a look.
The exit may be hidden under some rock... those pirates hated easy solutions.
Should I expect skeletons and chests full of gold?

No, there's nothing left after the visit of thousands of explorers.
Look, I've found the exit!
